

Diversity in media ownership is CRUCIAL

The FCC is seen by many as a captive of the media industry. Only by REVERSING the trend toward media consolidation can the Commission regain the trust of the American people and, far more importantly, encourage the diversity of expressed opinion in the mass media so crucial to a functioning democracy.

Please do NOT relax the rules governing media ownership.